A Message From Our Pastor

JMJ

Dear Parishioners,

Thank you to all who came out Thursday evening to venerate the relic of St. Jude the Apostle. The evening would not have been possible without the help of our many amazing volunteers from the Knights of Columbus, Daughters of the Holy Family, and Third Order Carmelites.

While the shrine of St. Jude has been replaced with our Nativity Scene, please continue to entrust your prayers and intentions to the Apostle of the Impossible. As Fr. Carlos mentioned, St. Jude is now a friend of Holy Family Parish and all her parishioners.

Advent Activities

If you look at the schedule for our Advent events, you will see that December will be a busy month.

Daughters Rectory Open House

Next Saturday, December 9th, following the 5:00 pm Mass, we invite those attending the Mass to stop by the rectory. The Daughters of the Holy Family will provide cookies, ornament crafts for kids, and hot cocoa served by our fire outside (so it doesn't get too crowded inside).

Camps R Us Hot Cocoa

Following the 10:30 am Family Mass, Sunday, December 10th, Camps R Us will be outside the O'Dea Center giving out hot cocoa to our children. Any parent interested in their summer camp program and anyone looking to secure a summer job should stop by after Mass.

Guest Preacher: Fr. Gabriel Gillen, O.P.

On the weekend of December 16-17, Fr. Gabriel Gillen, O.P. will preach at all of our Sunday Masses to speak about the critically important topic of evangelizing on our college campuses. Fr. Gabriel represents FOCUS, the Fellowship of Catholic University Students.

Kevin Becker Miracle Talk

On Friday, December 22nd at 7:00 pm, Kevin Becker will share his testimony regarding his miraculous healing through the intercession of Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati. I would certainly encourage everyone to hear this amazing talk, especially our young adult parishioners. It's not every day one gets to hear a fellow young adult share his testimony of faith and healing.

Feast of the Holy Family

Don't forget that our Parish Feast Day is the Sunday after Christmas. This year the Feast is December 31st. What better way to ring in the new year than by coming to Mass with your entire family for a special blessing?

Special Blessings will also be offered for all new families; those who have just moved here, newlyweds, and new parents.

To Jesus Through Mary,Fr. Sullivan

Grateful, Thankful, Blessed!

Holy Family School

www.hfssl.org

Holy Family School continues the tradition of having a wonderful school-wide Thanksgiving Lunch together. The classes gather together in the school gym, and they have activities to celebrate all of our blessings. Each class, sitting with a buddy class, completed many activities organized by the Frassati Fellowship, our 7th and 8th Grade service group named after Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati. This year we played Bingo and Spot the Difference, made Turkey Hats, and drew on the paper table cloths! Each family created a special feather to compose our annual turkey displayed on the stage. Our Junior Chorus sang "For the Beauty of the Earth," and our Kindergarten Class, demonstrating their American Sign Language, signed and recited a Thanksgiving prayer on the stage. Father Sullivan, Father Patrick, and many school board members also attended the feast! Special thank you to Mrs. Boyle, the Saunderson family, and our parent volunteers for preparing the food. We ended the day with "Balloons over Broadway" balloon floats that our 7th & 8th Grade students created during STREAM class! They were so creative! Follow our Instagram & Facebook page for more photos! We are truly blessed and grateful at Holy Family School.
